"DRINK IT TO BELIEVE IT, BOOST UP YOURSELF"

A Family Business - Since 1948s

The founder of "TONG NAM" my late grandfather Lee Hee Wee (1902-1992) who reached Malacca, Malaya from Hainan Island, China initially established his very first and owned coffee house named "TONG NAM KOPITIAM" in year 1948 at Jalan Bunga Raya, Malacca.

While kids of my late grandparents who was the 2nd generation, got involved in the industry since kids helping parents in the kopitiam been passed onto responsibility to further expose till 1960s. It's a small and family business.

Back then, it was famous for its traditional charcoal - grilled white bread toast and coffee and tea.

The idea was suggested by 3rd generation by our LEE'S brothers and sisters and it was a business close to our hearts as ours grandparents had ventured into the traditional Hainanese coffee shop business when we were young. All my cousins open their own Kopitiam at different places. We are the third generations, behind the coffee bar, the legacy of LEE'S Hainan Kopitiam lives on.

The ingenious Hainanese created "KAYA" by cooking coconut milk with eggs and sugar over a low flame. By sandwiching this rich coconut jam with salted butter between freshly toasted bread, a sweet and savoury treat dubbed the "yuanyang" toast came into being.

The Hainanese also became venerable coffee connoisseurs. They would often mix sugar, rolled oat and corn with coffee beans during the roasting process. The sugar caramelises and coats the beans, giving rise to a dark, rich and uniquely flavoured Hainanese brewed coffee. Coffee means something special: a ritual. It's an artform, pouring boiling water into a cloth filter bag, filled with aromatic coffee grounds to make a strong black kopi O.

One of the highlights of HAINANESE food and beverages is the LITTLE HAINAN TEA which is a mixture of five ingredients: Coffee, Tea, Milo, Evaporated Milk and Condensed Milk. Another special Hainanese drink is the SECRET ingredient coffee (HAINAN AKA KOBİ), a cup of coffee with a little secret. "In the olden days, most Hainanese migrated from China were farmers, they work in the farm was tough thus they needed energy. The secret in the coffee served as an energy booster in an economic way". Apart from that, the secret enhanced the flavor of the coffee and added fragrance to the drink, SECRET COFFEE is also called "The poor man's drink" in the early days.

DAKKA LITTLE HAINAN TEA & DAKKA SECRET SIGNATURE COFFEE.

Must Try!!! ONLY available at DAKKA STATION.
